

Who's Who in Harrisburg—Scenes Attending the Inauguration of Pennsylvania's Governor

VARE BROTHERS—SENATOR EDWIN H. AND REPRESENTATIVE WILLIAM S. In the center is W. Freeland Kendrick, Receiver of Taxes.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL LEWIS E. BETTLER

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SAFETY WILLIAM H. WILSON

MAYOR W. S. McDOWELL, OF CHESTER

LEFT TO RIGHT, Lieutenant "Jack" Rouch Sproul, Jr.; William C. Sproul; the new Governor, William C. Sproul; Mrs. Dorothy Klaer, the Governor's daughter, and Jane Klaer, his granddaughter.

MRS. WILLIAM HALL SPROUL, THE GOVERNOR'S MOTHER

THE ARRIVAL OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN CLUB OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA in Harrisburg, 600 strong, in tan broadcloth overcoats, tan-colored spats and gloves, striped trousers, white neckties, and carrying umbrella canes.

SENATOR JAMES S. BOYD, FROM MONTGOMERY COUNTY, and Harold C. Pike, youngest member of the House of Representatives, twenty-six years old, from Chelton township.

COLONEL WILLIAM A. MAGCORKLE, EX-GOVERNOR OF WEST VIRGINIA

DAVE MARTIN AND "UNCLE DAVE" LANE